

Penfest 2020 Programme

Saturday 26th September and Sunday 27th September FREE* ALL STUDIOS: Visitors will be required to comply with the Scottish government's COVID restrictions, whatever they may be at the time, and will be required to wear masks and keep a distance, if that is still in place. Weaving studio: Hand sanitizer supplied; a maximum of 5 visitors at any given time. Garden studio: visitors can view and sit in the garden while waiting.	11am - 4pm	OPEN STUDIOS The Garden Studio, 20a John Street, Penicuik. Paintings by Ulla Hipkin. The Weaving Studio, 5B West Street, Penicuik. Weaving by Christina Suter and ink drawings by Kalina Suter. Valleyfield Pottery, 17 High Street, Penicuik. Pottery by Jane Kelly
Saturday 26th September FREE*	10am	Annual Art Exhibition for the Turner prize made available online.
Saturday 26th September FREE*	7:30pm	Opening concert videos made available online. Ronald Miller and Brian Miller
Sunday 27th September £10 - purchase tickets on website to receive Zoom link	2 - 3pm	Alice Tarbuck: Writing workshop online (via Zoom)
Monday 28th September FREE*	7pm	Opening of St James Penfest Exhibition online
Tuesday 29th September FREE* FREE*	11am - 3pm 8 pm	St James the Less Bright and Beautiful exhibition open at the church hall, 23 Broomhill Road, Penicuik Penicuik Folk Club online (via Zoom): Link in to Zoom Folk Club for an informal evening of music and blether. Please email Alan Murray for the Zoom link: alanmurray350@gmail.com
Wednesday 30th September FREE* £5 - purchase tickets on website to receive Zoom link	11am - 3pm 7:30pm	St James the Less Bright and Beautiful exhibition open at the church hall, 23 Broomhill Road, Penicuik Jemma Derbyshire: Art lecture online (via Zoom) and announcing the winner of the Turner Prize!

Thursday 1st October FREE*	11am - 3pm	St James the Less Bright and Beautiful exhibition open at the church hall, 23 Broomhill Road, Penicuik
FREE*	7:30pm	Pentland Piano Festival goes online
Friday 2nd October FREE*	11am - 3pm	St James the Less Bright and Beautiful exhibition open at the church hall, 23 Broomhill Road, Penicuik
Saturday 3rd October FREE*	11am - 3pm	St James the Less Bright and Beautiful exhibition open at the church hall, 23 Broomhill Road, Penicuik
FREE*	7:30pm	Penfest Final Concert made available online. Graham MacDonald and friends provide an hour of wonderful music.
Sunday 4th October FREE* tickets from website to receive Zoom link	2pm	“Show and Tell” Artists show and talk about the work they submitted to the Turner Prize exhibitions, with the announcement of the People’s Choice winner!
Saturday 3rd October and Sunday 4th October FREE*	11am - 4pm	OPEN STUDIOS The Garden Studio, 20a John Street, Penicuik. Paintings by Ulla Hipkin. Valleyfield Pottery, 17 High Street, Penicuik. Pottery by Jane Kelly
ALL STUDIOS: Visitors will be required to comply with the Scottish government's COVID restrictions, whatever they may be at the time, and will be required to wear masks and keep a distance, if that is still in place. Garden studio: visitors can view and sit in the garden while waiting.

*FREE events - donations would be very much appreciated.

For donations to the PCAA, please see the Donations link on the PCAA webpage.

For donations to St James the Less church, cash donations are welcome - proceeds will be divided between the PCAA and the running costs of the church building.

To attend the live exhibition at St James the Less Church Hall, please book in advance if possible so that we can guarantee we can let you in and ensure social distancing! (07815052929), though you can also just turn up and take pot luck. Visitors will be required to wear face coverings and keep a distance, if that is still in place.

All information and tickets for events can be found at <https://penicuikarts.org/penfest-2020/>

Don't miss out on the PCAA Calendar 2021, featuring art work by the PCAA Artists' Group Only £10! Full details on our website. Also available from The Arts Centre, Pen-y-Coe Press and the Storehouse.